1. As far as KOPKOW is concerned, I would recommend that you start off by studying the British (CSOG) interrogation report on the man. It is still by far the most important and informative collection of data on Amt IV 2. If I recall correctly there also exists a War Room study on this complex, based on the HEPKOW interrogation and on the EQUAL compilation.

2. I am reasonably certain that KOPKOW was taken over by the BIS. If you want any authentic information, I would suggest that you take the train to Bonn and look up our old friend Bill STEINMAN of JAVELIN who is the world's greatest living expert on the German intelligence services.
